Handblown Copper Mesh + Glass Pendants Black Brass Stem Suspended Lamp, Bocci

84.6 Suspended Lamp By Bocci

84 begins with a white glass bubble is captured inside a fine copper mesh basket and then plunged into hot clear glass. Air is blown into the matrix to gently push the white glass through the mesh, creating a delicate pillowed form that is suspended inside the thick outer layer of clear glass. Sometimes the copper mesh basket folds and crinkles, adding specificity to each piece.

Ceiling mount has a 3.75" diameter and is mounted on a black brass stem.

Overall Measurements: 3.7"Ø x 72" h
